Terms and Conditions for Diving Activities: -

If the weather or any other circumstances beyond the control of COVENTRY SCUBA SCHOOL cause the course to be delayed, changed or cancelled, no liability can be accepted by the aforesaid party for consequential loss, damage or expense incurred.

Candidates using COVENTRY SCUBA SCHOOL'S equipment for any courses are responsible for that equipment and will be charged for any loss or damage arising from negligent behaviour.

Candidates may not participate in any OPEN WATER DIVING activities without a satisfactory completed medical statement.

Neither COVENTRY SCUBA SCHOOL nor its employees can be held responsible for damage to equipment or injury however caused.

No refund of fees will be made once the course has commenced, unless for medical reasons in which case a signed letter from your doctor stating why the candidate may not partake in diving activities will be required.

Candidates should be aware of their commitment to two nights per week (1 theory, 1 pool) for the next five weeks. If candidates miss any theory sessions it may be possible for them to self study and so complete the course in the agreed time, however missing a pool session may result in a delay in you completing your course, charges of £25.00 per pool session will be made to maintain the course schedule.

Candidates will be informed within 2 weeks of the commencement of the course of the dates when the FOUR OPEN WATER training dives will be made and will be expected to make themselves available for said dates and at the designated time. Candidates failure to attend the agreed dates and times without at least 14 days notice will result in an extra charge of £100.00 per day for completion of their OPEN WATER DIVES. If candidates can not attend for medical reasons a letter from your doctor will be required explaining your inability to participate in diving activities. In this event alternative dates will be arranged, at the discretion of COVENTRY SCUBA SCHOOL for which no extra charge will be made.

Candidates agree to abide by the rules of COVENTRY SCUBA SCHOOL in all diver-training matters.

I have read, understood and agree to the terms and conditions of booking.
